

TRAINING

The University of Picardie Jules Verne (UPJV) has many assets that attract 32,000 students per year, 10% of whom are international. Many international researchers and professors also join the UPJV each year to collaborate on high calibre research or training projects targeting the major societal challenges of the 21st century.

